

Wanted: Westchester Writers

for

A SINGLE THREAD – Exploring the rich tapestry of Westchester history

Tutti Bravi Productions, Inc., in collaboration with the New Rochelle Council on the Arts, issues a call for Westchester writers to submit original monologues featuring a Westchester person, place or event, to be included in a theatrical production by the Company.

The monologues should be a maximum of 10 minutes long, and should be submitted digitally, no later than April 30, 2023.

Up to ten finalists will be selected from the entries, to be used in a production in the fall of 2023. If the writer wishes to present his/her own monologue in the production, the submission must be accompanied by a video sample showing his/her performance abilities.

Guidelines for Entrants

- 1 – Writer must be a resident of Westchester.
- 2 – Entries must be in the form of a monologue based on the theme: A Single Thread – Exploring the rich tapestry of Westchester history, and be no longer than 10 minutes in length.
- 3 – The subject of the piece shall be tied to Westchester in some way:
  - a. A former or current resident (e.g. Norman Rockwell, Thomas Paine, Madame Walker, etc.)
  - b. Someone who has created something that is identified with Westchester, or the creation itself (e.g. Walter Lantz – Mighty Mouse; Washington Irving – The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, etc.)
  - c. A Westchester location or building, or a site that no longer exists, that has some significance (e.g. John Jay Homestead, site of Battle of White Plains, etc.)
- 4 – Entrants require no previous publishing experience. Anyone who enjoys writing and has an interesting topic that fits the above guidelines is eligible.

Submit entries to: tuttibraviproductions@gmail.com no later than midnight April 30, 2023. Include your name, address, phone number and e-mail address, plus a short bio. Reminder: If you wish to perform your own piece, please include a video sample of your acting/reading abilities.
